Walk Wisely through Table Talk...

What you lookin' at?

As part of our Walking Wisely series, our next Table Talk evening is back on Zoom this Thursday (14th) with Colin Walters leading our chat on 'What you look at'. We'll send round the Zoom log in details separately but please mark it in your diaries. It would be great if you can join us.

If you've not used Zoom before and have questions, please direct message us on WhatsApp before 7.30pm on Thursday evening!

Our final Table Talk in this series is Walking Wisely with 'Where You Go' on 11 June.

Weekend Away 2020

We continue to plan for our weekend away from 25-27 September. We are in touch with both our guest speaker and the venue at Moggerhanger Park. Please make sure the dates are set in your diaries and you've registered your interest. Now is the time! Please pray that we'll be able to go! Book in on Eventbrite here.

Breakfasts...

Yep, they are all postponed for now. As soon as we are able to, we will reintroduce other dates so we can all catch up later in the year.

Calendar updates!

All our events are up to date in our calendar.

Finally, some thoughts during the ongoing lockdown: How's your prayer life? Lol says, 'We need to be united in prayer now more than ever. Brothers, we are stronger together than when we are alone. Even the smallest worry matters and we should be praying for these things. Prayer works.'

Are you being generous? Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously' (2 Corinthians 9:6).

Make it your aim to be the most generous person you know. Be generous with your money, your possessions, your time and your love. You cannot out-give God. The more you give, the more you will harvest and the more you will enjoy the favour of God in your life.

God bless you men!
